At Calvary Episcopal Church, Fourth avenue and Twenty-first street, a Christmastido service will be held tomorrow afternoon. This is the Manger Service and it always makes a distinct appeal. The Manager in which the Christmas scenes and characters are portrayed is placed in the chancel steps. The service is informal with the central theme being the story of the Manager and its message of God's gifts to us.

Those coming to the service bring a gift marking it for a "boy" or a "girl" and during the singing of a hymn these are brought and placed before the Manger. After the service these gifts are and to places where children would not know the joy of a Christmas gift if it did not come in this way.

Whittlesey's Lost Battalion Was Never Lost!

The battalion commanded by Colonel Charles W. Whittlesey in the Argonne Forest was never lost, says Bozeman Bulger in an article in to-morrow's Tribune.

The term "Lost Battalion" was like fresh salt in a raw wound to courageous-hearted Whittlesey, whose little force achieved its objective and, though completely surrounded by the Germans, held fast for five days. This fiveday stand in the face of tremendous odds made it possible for supporting troops to be brought up and the front of the division stabilized.

Bozeman Bulger writes from first-hand knowledge of Colonel Whittlesey's experience in the Argonne. At the time Major Bulger had been transferred from the 77th Division to the General Staff and was in charge of the bureau through which correspondents were enabled to be on the Argonne fighting front.

When the true facts as told by Bozeman Bulger in to-morrow's Tribune about Whittlesey's battalion are generally known, the heroic action of his command of 600 men will rank with the Defense of The Alamo and Custer's Last Stand.

For the real facts about Whittlesey's battalion and a vivid account of their five days' fight read Bozeman Bulger's "The Truth About the Lost Battalion" on the first page of the
